ETHICS POLICY (RESEARCH)

Hajee Karutha Rowther Howdia College, Uthamapalayam is committed to encourage the Teaching Staff to engage in the research activities in the form of registering and completing PhDs, Publication of Books, Applying and completing research projects, Publication of research articles in the U.G.C approved journals, accommodating them in scopus, and H.Index. While doing so, the college has been insisting the teaching staff to adhere to the ethics connected with the publications. The college particularly condemns the intellectual theft (Plagiarism). To inculcate research ethics among the staff, an Ethics Committee has been formed and the teaching staff have been asked to follow the resolutions passed by the Committee every year. The teaching staff have been asked to make use of plagiarism software available either in the Madurai Kamaraj University or Shanlax Publications or the software to which the college has linkages, before their works are published.
