Policy for Blood Donation

Hajee Karutha Rowther Howdia College, Uthamapalayam is bound to inculcate social values among students as implanting them has been a part of its Mission. Having well understood that Blood Donation is an act of social value which saves human life, the College which has potential for this service, encourages and helps the staff and students to donate blood. To regulate the stated human service, the college has framed a policy for Blood Donation, with some regulations mentioned below.

- The Staff and Students of the college are permitted to donate blood either individually or collectively in the Blood Donation Camps conducted in the campus
- Blood Donation Camps can be organized periodically in the campus every year.
- Blood Donation Camps can be organized either by the NCC, NSS, YRC, Health and Fitness Club of the college either individually or in association with each other.
- The Blood Donation Camps can be organized by the Clubs and NSS / NCC Units of the College even outside the campus in association with the Government or Non-Government voluntary organizations
- The College will donate the collected blood only to the Government Hospital.
- In case of want of rare blood groups, those students are identified and permitted to donate the blood directly to the needy with the assistance of the NCC and NSS officers
- The NSS, NCC and YRC are permitted to conduct awareness camps both inside and outside the camps to encourage Blood Donation.
- The college will make arrangements to provide Certificates of Appreciation/ Recognitions to this effect to the donors from the Agencies / Originations which conduct the Blood Donation Camps
