POLICY FOR SLOW LEARNERS

Hajee Karutha Rowther Howdia College, Uthamapalayam is committed to uplift the academic capability of the slow learners who have less abilities in problem solving, critical thinking and who find it difficult to cope up with higher learning process on account of less knowledge in English, poor economic background and inadequate motivation. In order to promote their academic level on par with the advanced learners, the college has come out with a policy for Slow Learners which has the following highlights.

- The slow learners will be identified by the mentors concerned in each class.
- They shall be motivated to improve their level of learning
- They shall be helped by the teacher in the Teaching and Learning Process in bilingual mode.
- They shall be directed to attend bridge classes, remedial programmes and extra classes to the courses in which they are weak
- They shall be directed to attend Time Management, Personality Development and Communication Development programmes
- They shall be asked to get study materials for their courses from the teaching staff concerned.
