Baithulmal (Scholarship) – Policy

Baithulmal, is an Arabic word meaning House of Money or House of wealth. In Islam, the word refers to money collected from the wealthy Muslims and deposited in the treasury and the same is spent for the welfare of the people. In the light of it, to provide financial assistance to the Muslim students to meet their academic requirements a scholarship with the name Baithulmal has been set up. It is distributed, on the basis of the following regulations.

1. A Committee comprises of Principal as Chairman, a coordinator and members will be in charge of managing Baithulmal and distributing the amount to the needy Muslim students to meet their educational expenses.
2. Voluntary cash donations shall be collected from the Muslim staff and Muslim well-wishers of the college.
3. The amount collected shall be deposited in the Baithulmal Bank Account.
4. Muslim students who need financial assistance shall apply for Baithulmal fund.
5. The students who applied for financial assistance shall get the approval of the President of the local Muslim community to ensure that the students concerned are economically poor and eligible to use Baithulmal.
6. The Committee managing Baithulmal shall distribute the amount to the needy Muslim Students.
7. The money shall be distributed in the form of Bank cheque to the students.
8. The process of collecting donations, processing to find out eligible students and distributing money shall take place in every academic year.
